1. “You guys who spend all your time reading commentaries and analysing the Bible and planning what you're going to say on a Sunday, you just don't leave any room for the Spirit to speak” Explain from what was said in the message how this is a theological impossibility?
2. In the Old and New Testament “Spirit” and “Word” are very closely linked. Give a few examples.
3. Given the “Spirit” / “Word” connection and the fact that Ephesians 6: 17 talks about the sword of the Spirit being the word of God, complete the following sentence: “When you think of how the Holy Spirit working today you should think of Him working through the B_____”
4. What implications does the answer to the question above have for our lives and church?
